Background Study Clearance
Adoption

Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 245C (Department of Human Services Background Studies Act), and Chapter 259 (Adoption) a background study was conducted on the individual named above.

A search was made of criminal records on file with the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension, of maltreatment records maintained by the County Social Service Information System and the Minnesota Department of Human Services, and of maltreatment records maintained by any state in which the individual resided within the past five years. In addition, a fingerprint-based search was made of criminal records on file with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The search resulted in no criminal or maltreatment history on this individual.

The county or private agency that submitted the background study should keep this form for their records to document compliance with background study requirements.

The following adoption-related background studies have been completed on the above individual since July 1, 2007:

None found.

Note: The above list is based on an exact match of study subject's first name, last name, and date of birth. If a previous background study was submitted under a different name, it will not be included in this list.

Questions regarding this correspondence should be directed to the Minnesota Department of Human Services, Division of Licensing -- Background Studies Unit, at (651) 431-6620.
